ALL SAINTS DAY

Every year on November 1st, we celebrate All Saints Day – which is a Holy Day of Obligation! So, that leads to the question: What is All Saints Day?

Celebrated on November 1st every year, All Saints Day is a Church Holy Day of Obligation (meaning you must attend Mass on this day) where we celebrate all those who have attained Heaven: saints! It is a feast or solemnity of all the saints in Heaven, both saints recognized by the Church as holy men and women and those who remain unknown.

Christmas Program!

This year we will be having a Nativity Play. ALL CHILDREN WILL HAVE A PART!! This will begin after 9AM Mass on Sunday, December 15th! We will have a meal afterward in the church hall! We need to know how many plan to attend so we can make sure we have the correct amount of food. Please mark down all family members that plan to attend (if you have invited family/friends, please mark them down as well! I am only asking for their names so that I don't get double on the families with same family members!) Thank you!

_____ My child will be there, but we will not be staying for dinner.

_____ We will be at the play and dinner, this is our count for immediate family.

_____ We have invited family members/friends who will stay for dinner! 😊 Here are their names:
